2019 Shoshin Kai Karate Camp

About Tokey Hill

In 1980, Tokey Hill made history in Madrid, Spain, by being the first American to ever win the WKF World Championships; to date, he has won more international medals than any other karate practitioner in the United States. Years later, Tokey Hill became the National Coach for the USKF. Soon, he was the Head Coach for the USA/NKF and ultimately advanced into the position of Coach's Committee Chair.

In 1999, Tokey Hill became the United States Olympic Committee's Coach of the Year due to his coaching performance at the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg, Canada. Having 11 of his athletes go on to win nine medals, (five gold, one silver, and three bronze) Tokey Hill's squad was named the Best Coached of the entire delegation.
